

High School Humanities Teacher | Full-Time

Chesterton Academy of Rochester, a joyfully Catholic, classical high school, seeks talented and dynamic full-time Humanities teachers to join our team starting in the 2023-2024 academic year. Part-time options may also be available.

The successful candidates will be able to teach multiple levels of at least two of the following subjects: History, Latin, Literature, and Theology. A bachelor's or master's degree in History, Literature, or a related Humanities field is required. Teaching experience is preferred, as well as experience in and passion for Catholic classical education.

The candidate must be a practicing Catholic and willing to take the Oath of Fidelity to the Magisterium. Candidates must demonstrate excellent organizational, written, and verbal communication skills, and possess a track record of contributing to the vision and mission of an apostolic and educational enterprise.

In addition to their teaching responsibilities, faculty at Chesterton Academy participate in the House system, which is designed to promote character and virtue and to help students grow in holiness. Full-time faculty members are required to attend daily Mass with the entire student body and assist in leading spiritual retreats and school activities.

Interested candidates should submit a cover letter, resume, and three to five references to dklosterman@chestertonacademyofrochester.org.

About Chesterton Academy of Rochester

Founded in 2014 as a result of a grass-roots movement of parents, Chesterton Academy of Rochester has a small student population and is looking to grow. It offers a rigorous, integrated high school curriculum centered on the Incarnation of Jesus Christ.
